

We the listeners pay for the satellite radio service so how does anybody dare tell us what we can listen to. Traffic and weather? Give me a break. This is about the advertisers money pure and simple. Don't try to limit this medium for the sake of the fat cats too.Thank you.